Making History

A.G.M.

at the Mechanics Institute, Meadow Street, GUILDFORD on Monday 12th March 2018, 7 00 pm for 7 30 pm. All welcome.

Preceded by a short presentation by Alec Marshall

The Adventure Travel Film Festival has been inspiring travellers, would be travellers and armchair travellers for nearly a decade. Originating in London the festival now screens in England, Scotland, Victoria and now finally W.A.

It's an off the beaten track adventure for the whole family. See and experience the places, trials, challenges and ultimately the joy of people who decided to act on the dream and just do it!

Alec will outline ways in which the Swan Guildford Historical Society might choose to become involved.

Making a Difference

An historical account capturing the challenges, triumphs and celebrations of La Salle College since its foundation in 1954. Meticulously researched and written by Clement Mulcahy it is in a most easy to read style, this is a book for lovers of history.

The 2 volume book set is available from La Salle College, place your order by ringing 9274 6266. Cost $119.

Speaker: 9 April 2018

Our next speaker, Lois Haime, was introduced to Bill de Burgh a friend of the late Judith Harper, Bill was looking for someone to type out handwritten letters, letters written by Henry de Burgh, Lois kindly offered to oblige.

Lois realised what a wealth of information the letters contained, regarding life of the early settlers, her talk, “Excerpts from Henry De Burgh’s diary from 1841” promises to transport us back in time.

The de Burgh brothers Henry and Robert, arrived on the “James Matthews” in 1841. Their history is recorded in ‘The Breakaways’ written by Robert’s great-grandson William John de Burgh and his wife Margaret.

Please join us at the Mechanics Institute, Meadow St, Guildford. 7 00 pm for 730 pm -All welcome,
